

HFMA London Branch

Programme of events – lunch and learn sessions

The HFMA London branch is delighted to be delivering a series of ‘lunch and learn’ sessions over the coming months to help support the region through this challenging time. The events aim to provide something for everyone and are available free of charge to HFMA members, and £20 + VAT for non-members.

Date	Time	Details
24 Nov	12:00 – 13:00	Our experience of Covid and what it means for the future  Caroline Clarke, Group Chief Executive and Peter Ridley, Group Chief Finance &amp; Compliance Officer, Royal Free London NHS Foundation Trust. Chaired by Virginia Massaro, Acting Chief Financial Officer, Chelsea and Westminster Hospital NHS Foundation Trust Join Caroline and Peter for this interactive, informal, interview style webinar. In this session, you will hear some insight and lessons learnt from their experience of COVID-19 at the Royal Free London NHS Foundation Trust. Click here to book your place
30 Nov	12:00 – 13:00	London health economy and finances  Ann Johnson and Sir David Sloman, London Regional Director, NHS England and Improvement. Chaired by Hannah Witty, Chief Finance Officer, Central and North West London NHS Foundation Trust Session details tbc Click here to book your place

15 Dec	12:45 – 13:45	Negotiating and Influencing  Derek Arden, Facilitator, and Author. Chaired by Pat Shroff, Red Tape Consulting Ltd Influencing and negotiating is a core part of our day to day business and personal life. This online workshop aims to help you to improve and enhance your influencing and negotiation skills by introducing you to some new concepts, processes, and tools for your toolkit. You will learn some key and simple processes for influencing and negotiating with others. Click here to book your place
14 Jan	12:00 – 13:00	ICS Development  Tim Jaggard, Chief Financial Officer, University College London Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust, Rob Hurd, Royal National Orthopaedic Hospital NHS Trust. Chaired by Phil Wells, Director of Finance, Homerton University Hospital NHS Foundation Trust This session will discuss the evolving Integrated Care System landscape, what this means for organisations across London and addressing some of the challenging issues such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• How will we balance organisational and system level accountability?</li> <li>• How should we work differently together compared to the past?</li> <li>• How is money likely to flow in the future and what does this mean for organisations?</li> <li>• How will the finance function in London need to adapt to the new “system by default” approach?</li> </ul> Click here to book your place
4 Feb	12:30 – 13:30	Talking Systems: From living in hierarchy to working in networks  Dr Mark Cole, Senior Manager - Leadership Development, London Leadership &amp; Lifelong Learning Team. Chaired by Sotiris Kyriacou, Head of the London Skills Development Network, London Skills Development Network This talk will aim to create space and time for the whole group to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Draw out learning about managing complexity from our recent lived experience</li> <li>• Explore how best to understand and preserve the light and illuminate the shade in our current circumstances</li> <li>• Clarify what we mean – and what others mean – when they talk about “systems”</li> <li>• Investigate the thinking and modelling that will support us to: rethink our approach to work; consider critically the context in which we find ourselves in light of the ambitions for health and social care; and make commitments – individually and collectively – as to how we might encourage systemic working</li> </ul> Click here to book your place
3 March	12:00 – 13:00	Building High Performance Teams  Amanda Carlyle, Director, Clearly Training. Chaired by David Needham, Partner, Green Park This interactive workshop will take place on Zoom, and will explore some key ways in which you can build high performance teams online:

		<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• What's the challenge with teams?</li><li>• Building synergy, cohesion and understanding across a remote team</li><li>• Cognitive diversity to maximise team performance</li><li>• Maximise the collective intelligence of the team</li><li>• Dominance hierarchy risks</li><li>• How to facilitate more engaging team meetings</li></ul> Click here to book your place